HPC resources

Research Solutions provides high performance computing (HPC) resources and services to the university’s research community. Some of the services and resources are as follows:

- Orion: a loosely coupled cluster.
- XSEDE: resources through the Extreme Science and Engineering Discovery Environment (XSEDE) Campus Champion program.
- Azure: cloud computing resources
- Training: host research computing workshop/training sessions that range from Introductory to Advanced level.